FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GOLF FOR THE TRUST

The HSBC Charity Golf Tournament to Benefit the National Trust to be Held on 9 July

WEDNESDAY, 9 JUNE – The National Trust for the Cayman Islands, with many thanks to the generous support of HSBC Bank (Cayman) Limited, will host its first golf tournament on Friday, 9 July at the North Sound Club Golf Course. The proceeds of The HSBC Charity Golf Tournament to benefit the National Trust for the Cayman Islands will benefit the Educational, Environmental and Historic programmes of the National Trust to keep with the mission: “to preserve natural environments and places of historic significance for present and future generation in the Cayman Islands.

Tee times will begin at 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., the days event will commence with a prize presentation ceremony followed by a buffet dinner serving food with a Caribbean flair. Attendees will have the opportunity to win a number of exciting prizes and giveaways, making this an event not to be missed!

“The National Trust thanks HSBC for showing that they are truly the world’s local bank,” said Frank Balderamos, General Manager of the National Trust for the Cayman Islands. “The local history, culture and environment of Cayman will benefit from their support.”

The public is invited to support the National Trust by registering a team of four to play at the tournament or sponsoring a hole. Forms are available online at www.nationaltrust.org.ky. For more information on the Golf Tournament please contact Erika Walton at 749-1129 or e-mail ewalton@nationaltrust.org.ky.
